Absolved

148 II 3-4
Fully absolved through these I am,
From sin and fear, from guilt and shame.

Am

312 III 2
I am my Lord's and he is mine

333 I 5
Thine, wholly, thine alone, I am

342 I 1
Lord, I am thine, entirely thine,

374 I 1-2
Loving Jesus, gentle Lamb,
In thy gracious hands I am;

Anchor

302 V 3-4
This anchor shall my soul sustain,
When earth's foundation melt away;

330 II 3-4
In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds withinthe veil.

Blessing

323 III 3
The blessings of our pilgrimage are failing:

341 III 1-4
Thrice blest will all our blessings be
When we can look through them to thee;
When each glad heart its tribute pays
Of love and gratitude and praise.

636 II 3-4
Traveller, blessedness, and light,
Peace and truth its course portends.

Brevity

18 II 1-4
Our years are like the shadows
On sunny hills that lie,
Or grasses in the meadows
That blossom but to die;

Brevity of Life

50 II 1
Swift to its close ebbs out lifes little day;

253 II 1-2
The present moment flies,
And bears our life away;

426 I 1-4
My span of life will soon be done,
The passing moments say;
As lengthening shadows o'er the mead
Proclaim the close of day.

444 IV 1-4
My suffering time shall soon be o'er;
Then shall I sigh and weep no more;
My ransomed soul shall soar sway,
To sing thy praise in endless day.

458 IV 5-6
Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days,

464 I 3-4
And soon behind the cloudland
Wilt sink my setting sun.

464 I 1-2
Slowly, slowly darkening
The evening hours roll on;

568 II 1-6
Our life is a dream; ourtime, as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay.
The arrow is flown, the moment is gone
The millennial year
Rushes on to our view, and eternity's her .

570 I 1-2
And now, my soul, another year
Of thy short life is past;

570 I 3-4
I cannot long continue here,
And this may be my last.

572 II 1
The parted year had winged feet;

574 I 1-8
While, with ceaseless course, the sun
Hastened through the former year,
Many souls their race have run,
Never more to meet us here;
Fixed in an eternal state
They have done with all below;
We a little longer wait,But how little, none can know.

574 II 1-6,8
As the winged arrow flies
Speedily the mark to find;
As the lightening from the skies
Darts, and leave no trace behind;
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream;
All below is but a dream.

Brevity of Life

577 V 1-4
The busy tribes of flesh and blood,
With all their care and fears,
Are carried downward by the flood,
And lost in following years.

577 VI 1-4
Time , like an ever rolling stream.
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening of day.

578 I 1-4
A few more years shall roll,
A few more seasons come,
And we shall be with those that rest,
Asleep within the tomb.

578 II 1-4
A few more storms shall beat
On this wild, rocky shore,
And we shall be where tempests cease
And surges swell no more.

578 III 1-4
A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more.

579 I 4-6
A point of time, a moments space,
Remo es me to that heavenly place,
Or shuts me up in hell.

587 I 1,3-4
Friend after friend departs
There is no union here of hearts,
That finds not here an end.

623 III 1,3-4
Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
Soon our Saviour will return
Triumphant, in the skies;

678 III 1-4
By cool Siloan's shady rill
The lily must decay;
The rose that blooms beneath the hill
Must shortly fade away.

678 IV 1-4
And soon, too soon, the wintry hour
Of man's maturer age
Will shake the soul with sorrow's power
And stormy passions rage.

Cares of Life

253 IV 1
One thing demands our care;

394 II 1-4
Around us rolls the ceaseless tide,
Of business, toil, and care,
And scarcely can we turn aside
For one brief hour of prayer.

447 I 3-4
And worldly cares and worldly fears,
Go with us to the last.

458 III 1-2
Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to thy breast,

458 III 3-4
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest

480 III 1-2
I have no cares, O blessed will,
For all my cares arethine;

556 II 1-2.4
Before our Father's throne,
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our comforts and our cares.

Child(the)

673 III 1-6
Yes, he will; for children's love
Makes this world like heaven above,
Where no evil reigns,
And where all unite to bring
Purest offerings, and sing
Love's unending strains.

678 II 1-4
Lo! such the child whose earthly feet
The paths of peace have trod,
Whose secret heart with influence sweet,
Is upward drawn to God.

680 I-V
There's a Friend for little children
A Friend who never changes,
Whose love will never die.
Our earthly friends may fail us,
And change with changing years,
This Friend is always worthy
Of that dear name he bears.

Child(the)

680 II

There's a rest for little children
Who loved the blessed Saviour,
And to the Father cry;
A rest from every turmoil,
From sin and sorrow free
Where every little pilgrim shall rest eternally.

III

There's a home for little children
Where Jesus reigns in glory,
A home of peace and joy,
No home on earth is like it,
Nor can with it compare;
For everyone is happy,
Nor could be happier there.

There's a song for little children
A song that will not weary,
Though sung continually;
A song which even angels
Can never, never sing;
They know not Christ as Saviour.
But worship him as King.

There's a crown for little children
And all who look for Jesus
Shall wear it by and by;
All, all above is treasured,
And found in Christ alone;
Lord, grant thy little children
To know thee as their own.

Comfort

32 V 4-6

Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

324 III 7-8

My comfort in the duty
That binds my life in thine.

Comfort

353 I 5-8
Thy righteousnesx, thy pardon,
Thy precious blood must be
My only hope and comfort,
My glory and my plea.

487 III 7
Sweet comfort yet shall fill my heart.

556 II 3-4
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

Country

704 II 1-2
Thy love divine hath led us in the past,
In this free land by thee our lot is cast;

706 III 1-4
Here freedom spreads her banner wide
And casts her soft and hallowed ray;
Here thou our Father's steps didst guide
In safety through their dangerous way.

711 I 5-8
Blessings from his liberal hand
Flow round this happy land;
Kept by him no foes annoy;
Peace and freedomwe enjoy.

712 I 1-2
Our thought of thee is glad with hope,
Dear country of our love and prayer;

712 I 3-4
But thy way is down no fatal slope
But up to freer sun and air.

712 II 1-4
Tried as thy furnace fires, and yet
By God's grace only stronger made;
In future tasks before thee set
Thou shalt not lack the old-time aid.

712 III 1-4
Great, without seeking to be great
By fraud or conquest; rich in gold,
But richer in the large estate
Of virtue which thy children hold.

712 IV 1-3
With peace that comes of purity,
And strength to simple justice due,
So runs our loyal dreams of thee,

Country

714 II 1-4
Thy hand has hid within our fields treasures of countless worth
Thy light, the suns of other years, shine from the depths of earth
The very dust, inbreathed by thee, the clouds all cold and dead,
Wake into beauty and to life, to give thy children bread.

714 III 1-4
Thou who hast sown the sky with stars, setting thy thoughts in gold
Hast crowned our nation's life, and ours, with blessings manifold
Thymercies have been numberless; thy love, thy grace, thy care,
Were wider than our inmost need, and higher than our prayer.

Cross

240 III 3,6
All the sharpness of the cross
Only whisper "Till he come."

408 III 5
Thy cross is lifted o'er us;

474 III 4
The cross succeeds the cross.

416 I 7-8
Who patient bears his cross below,
He follows inhis train.

428 I 3-4
No, there's a cross for every one,
And there'sa cross for me.

639 I 3-4
The sun, that lights its shining folds
The cross on which the Saviour died.

Darkness

58 1 2
The light and darkness are of His disposing.

61 I 5
Where thou art present, darkness can not be

Darkness

240 III 5-6

Death and darkness, and the tomb,
Only whisper, "Till he come."

522 VI 3-4

As darkness shows us worlds of light
We never saw by day.

542 V 3-4

Better in darkness just to feel thy hand,
And follow thee.

636 III 3

Traveler, darkness, takes its flight;

Day

94 V 1-2

Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower

110 V 1-8

For lo! the days are hastening on
By prophet-bards foretold,
When with the ever circling years
Comes round the age of gold;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

312 I 1-2

O happy day, that fixed my choice
On thee, my Saviour and my God!

312 Ref. 5-6

Happy day, happy day,
When Jesus washed my sins away.

540 IV 1-2

Well, the delightful day will come
When my dear Lord will bring me home.

Day

621 IV 2
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;

636 I 7-8
Traveller, yes it brings the day,
Promised day of Israel,

Death(approach of)

51 II 2
And I, perhaps am near my home;

620 I 1-4
One sweetly solemn thought
Come to me o 'er and o'er-
I'm nearer home today
Than I ever have been before.

620 II 1,3-4
Nearer my Father's house,
Nearer the great white throne;
Nearer the crystal sea

620 III 1-4
Nearer the bound of life,
Where we lay our burdens down
Nearer leaving the cross;
Nearer gaining the crown.

620 IV 1-4
But the waves of that silent sea
Rolled d rk before mysight
That brightly the other side
Break on a shore of light.

Death.

102 VI 3-4
And death when death shall be our lot,
Shall join our souls to thee.

151 III 7-8
For he who dies believing,
Dies safely through thy love,

159 II 2-4
The being he gave us death cannot destroy:
Sad were the light we must part with tomorrow
If tears were our birthright and death were our end;

160 I 3-4
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
To the former days belong.

Deaths

240 III 5,6

Death and darkness, and the tomb,
Only whisper, "Till I come."

250 II 4

Nor all of death to die.

250 IV 1-2

There is a death, whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath:

455 I 1-4

When musing sorrow weeps the past,
And mourns the present pain,
Tis sweet to think of peace at last,
And feel that death is gain.

582 II 1-4

So fades the summer cloud away;
So sinks the gail when storms are O'er,
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies the wave along the shore.

582 III 1-4

A holy quiet reigns around,
A calm which life nor death destroys;
And naught disturbs that peace profound
Which his unfettered soul enjoys.

582 IV 1-4

Life's labor done, as sinks the clay
Lightfrom its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
"How blest the righteous when he die!"

583 I 1-4; II 1-4;III 1-4;IV 3-4

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep
A calm and undisturbed repose
Unbroken by the last of foes.

Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet!
With holy confidence to sing,
That death hathlost his venomed sting.

Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest!
No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour
That manifests the Saviours power.

Deaths

Asleep in Jesus! O for me
May such a blissful refuge be
Securely shall my ashes lie,
Waiting the summons from on high.
But thine is tstill a blessed sleep
From which none ever wakes to weep.

586 II 1-4

Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear
Invades thy bounds; no mortal woes
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
While angels watch the soft repose.

588 II 1,3-4

They die in Jesus and are blest,
From sufferings and from sins released,
And free from every snare.

588 III 1-2

Far from this world of toil and strife,
They represent with the Lord;

597 III 1

The pains of death are past.

Discouragement

442 I 1-4

O it is hard to work for God,
To rise and take his part
Upon this battle field of earth
And not sometimes lose heart!

551 II 3

We should never be discouraged.

Duty

477 V 1-4

The mount for vision,- but below
The paths of daily duty go,
And nobler life therein shallown
The pattern on the mountainshown.

697 IV 2

Duty demands it;

Earth

5[illegible] V 3

Heavens morning breaks and earths vain shadows flee

Earth

166 II 1-2
Earth with joy confesses clothing her for spring,
All good gifts returned with her returning King.

274 Hi 1
The rocks can rend, the earth can quake;

302 V 4
When earth's foundations melt away;

323 IV 3
And earth from earth can scarce unclasp its fingers;

529 I 6
Earth hasno resting place.

607 III 1-2
God, be All-Merciful earth hath forsaken
Thy ways all holy, and slighted thy word,

Encouragement

456 II 1-4
The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

456 III 1-4
There is a day of sunny rest
for every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light.

474 I 1-4
Our highest joys succeed our griefs
And peace is born of pain;
Smiles follow bitter blinding tears,
As sunshine follows rain.

474 II 1-4
We gain our rest through weariness,
From bitter draw the sweet;
Strength comes from weakness
Hope from fear,
And victory from defeat.

474 III 1-4
We reap where we have sown the seed
Gain is the fruit of loss;
Life springs from death, and at the end,
The crowns succeeds the cross;

Eternity

105 VII 3-4
For O, eternity is too short
To utter all thy praise.

322 VI 3-4
A work so sweet, a theme so high,
Demands and crowns eternity.

529 IV 3
Welcome Eternity;

Faith

128 II 3
And faith hath still its Olivet,.

218 II 1-4
Let mountains from their seats be hurled
Down to the deep and buried,there,
Convulsions shake the solid world,
Our faith shall never yield to fear.

415 I 1-2
Faith ofour fathers! living still
Inspite of dungeon, fire, and sword;

452 I 3-4
And safer is such confiding,
For nothing changes here

455 II 1-III 4
'Tis not that murmuring thoughts arise,
And dread a Father's will;
'Tis not that meek submission flies,
And would not suffer still:

It is that heaven-born faith surveys
The path that leads to light,
And longs her eagle plumes to raise,
And lose herself in sight;

458 IV 7-8
And hope shall change to gladfruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise,

470 V 2
The eye of faith is dim

478 IV 1
Though faith and hope are often tried,

484 V 1-4
And dearer than all things I know
Is child-like faith to me,
That makes the darkest way I go
And open path to thee.

486 II 1-2
Our eyes see dimly till by faith annointed
And our blind choosing brings us grief and pain;

Fathers

86 VI 1
No earthly father loves like thee,

Fathers

415 II 1-2
Our fathers chained in prisons dark,
Were still in heart and conscience free,

580 II 3-4
Their joys and griefs, and hopes and cares
And wealth and honor gone.

700 I 1-4
O Lord, our father's oft hath told,
In our attentive ears,
Thy wonders in their days performed,
And in more ancient years.

Fear

356 II 1-4
A rest where all our soul'sdesire
Is fixed on things above;
Where fear, and sin, and griefexpire,
Cast out by perfect love.

464 VI 3
Fear ends with death;

556 II 3
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,

Fellowship

465 IV 1-4
Whereever in the world I am,
In what soe'er a state,
I have a fellowship with hearts,
To keep and cultivate;

556 I 3-4
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above

Flower

94 V 1-2
Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower:

96 V 4
But sweet will be the flower.

538 I 3-4
Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flowers,
Have all lost their sweetness to me;

Flower

673 I 1
Beauteous are the flowers of earth

Foes

295 III 5
The foe is stern and eager

350 II 5-6
My foes are ever near me,
Around me and within;

445 I 5-6
Hisseeming triumph o'er God's saints
Lasts but a little hour

Friends

522 II 1-2
The friends who in our sunshine live,
When winter comes are flown.

680 I 5-6
Our earthly friends may fail us,
And change with changing years,

Gain

385 III 5-6
Soon, your enemies all slain,
Crowns of glory you shall gain.

398 III 1-4
And ours the grateful service whence
Comes, day by day, the recompense;
The hope, the trust, the purposestayed,
The fountain, and the noonday shade.

408 III 7
The crown awaits the conquest

474 III 2
Gain is the fruit of loss;

Grace

80 I 3-4
Nature and grace, with all their powers

Grace

92 IV 1-2
When lifes sinks apace and death is in view,
The words of his grace c shall comfort us through;

343 IV 1-4
The more I triumph in thy gifts,
The more I wait on thee;
The grace that mightily uplifts
Most sweetly humbleth me.

470 I 3-4
To love and serve thee is my share,
And this thy grace must give.

553 III 3-4
The grace through every vessel flows,
In purestreams of love

667 III 1-2
With gifts of grace their hearts endow,
Of all rich dowries best;

Grief

146 V 1-2
But drops of grief can n'er repay
The debt of love I owe:

211 III 3-4
But, your'e griefs forever ending,
Find eternal noon in me.

322 II 2-4
And griefswould tear my throbbing breast,
Thy tuneful praises raised on high
Shall check the murmur and the sigh.

324 III 1-4
My grief is in the dullness
With which this sluggish heart
Doth open to the fullness
Of all thou wouldst impart;

356 II 1-4
A rest where all our souls desire
Is fixed on things above;
Where fear, and sin, and grief expire,
Cast out by perfect love.

Grief

456 III 3
And grief may bide an evening guest.

458 III 5
O 'tis not in grief to harm me.

637 III 2
Then be banished grief and pain.

Ground

330 Ref. 2
All other ground is sinking sand.

Heart

13 III 1
Tremble our hearts to find thee nigh.

19 III 7
Here's my heart, O take and seal it.

122 I 6
There is room in my heart for thee.

160 II 3-4
Holiest hearts for ages pleading
Never that full joy can see.

270 III 3
Here on my heart the burden lies.

274 II 3-4
Of feeling, all things show some sign,
But this unfeeling heart of mine.

274 III 4
And nothing moves this heart of mine.

295 II 5
Our hearts were filled with sadness.

298 II 1
To thee our humble hearts aspire.

Heart

345 I 5-6
My heart is pained, nor can it be
At rest, till it finds rest in thee.

345 II 5-6
Then shall my heart from earth be free,
When it hath found repose in thee.

348 III 3
Take my heart, it is thine own;

363 V 1-2
A trusting heart, a yearning eye,
Can win their way above.

366 II 1
O take this heart of stone away!

458 II 3
Human hearts and looks deceive me

522 III 1-4
But thou wilt heal that broken heart,
Which, like the plants that throw
Their fragrance from the wounded part,
Breathes sweetness out of woe.

529 II 5-7
Perishing things of clay,
Born but for one brief day,
Pass from my heart away;

572 III 1
Our hearts in tears may oft runo'er;

615 I 6
My heart is aching here;

621 IV 4
And heaven, the heart's true home will come at last.

651 II 1-4
Kingdom of heaven! whose dawn began
With Love's divine, incarnate breath,
Our hearts are slow to understand
The lessons of that life and death:

673 IV 1-6
Yes he will; for hearts that turn
To the sick and poor, and learn
How to make them glad,
Shine like beacons on the strand
Of the far-off, happy land,
To the lost and sad.

Heart

697 III 1-6

Down in the human heart,
Crushed by the tempter,
Feelings lie buried that grace can restore:
Touched by a loving heart
Wakened by kindness,
Chords that were broken will vibrate once more.

710 II 1-4

The tumult and the shouting dies;
The captains and the kings depart;
Still standsthine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart:

Heathen(regarding the)

655 II 1-8

What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every propect pleases,
And only man is vile?
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathenin his blindness
Bows down to wood and stone.

Hope

42 II 2,4

Hover around us while we pray;
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

62 III 2-4

So fade within our hearts
The hopes in earthly love and joy,
That one by one depart.

330 I 1-2

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;

353 I 5-8

Thy righteousness,thy pardon,
Thy precious blood must be
My only hope and comfort,
My glory and my plea.

357 I 3-4

This all my hope and all my plea,
For me the Savior died

371 III 3-4

My hope is full, O glorious hope!
Of immortality.

432 IV 1-3

Thrice blessed, bliss-inspiring hope!
It lifts the fainting spirits up,
It brings to life the dead;

439 IV 3-4

And longing hopes, and cheerful smiles,
Sit undisturbed upon their brow!

Hope

452 III 5

My hope I cannot measure,

455 IV 1-4

It is that hope with ardor glows,
To see him face to face,
Whose dying love no language knows
Sufficient art to trace.

458 IV 7

Hope shall change to glad fruition

556 II 3

Our fear, our hopes, our aims are one,

556 V 1-2

This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way

639 V 4

Our only hope, the Crucified!

Hour

477 III 1, IV 4

Yet hath one such exalted hour
Upon the soul redeeming power,
And in its strength through after days
We travel our appointed ways;

Till all the lowly vale grows bright,
Transfigured in remembered light,
And in untiring souls we bear
The freshness of the upper air.

538 I 1-2

How tedious and tasteless the hours
When Jesus no longer I see;

Humility

144 I 1-4

Never further than Thycross,
Never higher than thy feet
Here earth's precious things seem dross,
Here earth's bitter things grow sweet.

244 IV 2-4

I nothing have, I nothing am;
Excluded is my every boast;
My glory swallowed up in shame.

Joy

46 IV 1-2
New time, new favor, and new joys
Do a new song require:

50 II 2
Earth's joys grow dim its glories pass away

71 III 3-4
And fresh supplies of joy be shed,
Like holy oil to cheer my head.

90 I 3
From world to world the joys shall ring,

230 III 3
Joyful that we ourselves are thine,

302 IV 2
Here is my hope, my joy, my rest;

311 I 1-3
O how happy are they,
Who the Saviour obey,
And have laid up their treasures above.

311 III 1-2
'Twas a heaven below
My Redeemer to know,

311 IV 1-2
Jesus all the day long
Was my joy and my song.

311 V 1-6
O the rapturous height
Of that holy delight
Which I felt in the life-giving blood!
Of my Saviour possessed,
I was perfectly blest
As if filled with the fullness of God.

324 III 5-6
My joy is in thy beauty
Of holiness divine.

372 I 1-4
Happy the man that finds the grace,
The blessing of God 's chosen race
The wisdom coming from above,
The faith that sweetly works by love!

372 II 1-2
Happy, beyond descriptions he
Who knows,"The Saviour died for me!"

392 II 1-4
Thrice blest is he to whom is given
The instinct that can tell
That God is on the field, when he
Is most invisable.

Joy

392 III 1-4
Blest too is he who can divine
Where real right doth lie,
And dares to take the side that seems
Wrong to man's blind-fold eye.

534 II 1-6
Happy the man whose hopes rely
On Israel's God; he made the sky,
And earth and seas, with all their train;
His truth forever stands secure;
He saves the oppressed; he feeds the poor,
And none shall find his promise vain.

536 IV 3-4
Glad, when thy gracious smile we see,
Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.

542 VIil
Joy is like restless day;

546 I 1-4
Joy is a fruit that will grow
Innature's barren soil;
All we can boast, till Christ we know,
Is vanity and toil.

548 II 1-2
Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture, burst on my sight.

548 III 2
I in my Saviour am happy and blest

549 I 3-4
This joy of rest,
None but thy loved ones can receive

553 IV 1,4
We all partake the joy of one;
A joy unspeakable.

624 II 1-5
This happiness in part is mine,
Already saved from low design,
From every creature- love;
Blest with the scorn of finite good,
My soul is lightened of its load,

637 III 3-4
Righteousness amd joy and peace,
Undisturbed shall ever reign.

Kingdom

633 Ref. 1
The kingdom is coming,

Kingdom

651 I 1-4,8
Kingdom of light, whose morning star
To Bethlehem's manger led the way,
Not yet upon our longing eye
Shines the full splendor of thy day
Lo, the glad kingdom is at hand!

651 II 1-4
Kingdom of heaven! whose dawn began
With love's divine incarnate breath,
Our hearts are slow to understand
The lessons of that life and death;

651 III 1-4
Kingdom of peace! whose music clear
Swept through Judea's starlit skies,
Still the harsh soundsof human strife
Break on thy heavenly harmony;

682 II 8
For of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Life

102 VI 1-2
Our life, while thou preservest life,
A sacrifice shall be

138 II 3
All life is larger for thy law,

159 I 3-4
Sad were the life we must part with tomorrow
If tears were our birthright and death our end;

246 II 1-2
Like the rough sea that cannot rest,
You live devoid of peace;

250 II 3
Tis not the whole of life to live,

398 V 1-2
But life, though falling like our grain,
Like that revives and springs again;

452 III 6
My path to life is free,

474 III 3
Life springs from death and, at the end.

Life

470 V 1
My knowledge of that life is small

625 I 3
Life from the dead is in that word,

Light

53 I 1-2
Softly now the light of day
Fades upon our sight away;

53 III 1-2
Soon from us the light of day
Shall forever pass away;

58 I 2
The light and darkness are of his disposing

567 I 5-6
Clear before us through the darkness
Gleams and burns the guiding light:

636 II 3-4
Traveller, blessedness and light,
Peace and truth its course portends.

Lost

105 I 1-4
When all thy mercies, O my God
My rising soul surveys,
Transporting with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.

271 IV 4
Lord I am lost, but thou hast died,

309 I 3
I once was lost,

529 III 3
Lost in this dawning bright,

Love

25 II 1
Though unseen I love the Saviour

42 I 1-4
New every morning is the love
Our wakeningand uprising prove
Through sleep and darkness safely brought
Restored to light, and power, and thought.

Love

98 IV 1-4
If our love were butmore simple,
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

128 II 4
And love its Galilee,

141 IV 3-4
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, mylife, my all

152 IV 1-2-3
O love of God! O sin of man!
Inthis dread act your're strength is tried.
And victory remains with love;

183 V 3-4
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

237 III 2
The feast though not the love, is past and gone;
In

317 III 1-7
Let sorrow do its work,
Send grief and pain;
Sweet are thy messengers,
Sweet their refrain,
When they can sing with me,
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

363 III 3-4
Yet nothing less can satisfy
The love that longs for God.

408 II 7-8
"ith deeds of love and mercy,
The heavenly kingdom comes

470 I 3
To love and serve thee is my share,

554 V 3-4
And he's an heir of heaven who finds
His bosom glow with love.

Love

556 VI 3-4
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

557 V 3-4
In earth, in paradise, in heaven,
Our all in all is love.

676 I 3-4
Sweeter lesson cannot be,
Loving him who first loved me.

676 IV 1-2-4
Love in loving finds employ,
In obedience all her joy;
Ever new that joy will be
Loving him who first loved me.

689 III 1-4
Amid the snares misfortune lays
Unseen beneath the steps of all,
Blest is the love that seeks to raise,
And stay and strengthen those who fall

Man

88 II 2
Man decays, and ages move;

160 I 7-8
In God's likeness, an awaking,
Knows the everlasting peace.

225 IV 3-4
A man! an heir of death! a slave
To sin! a bubble on the wave!

Mansions

628 III 1-4
While here, a stranger far from home,
Affliction's waves may round me foam;
Although, like Lazarus sick and poor
My heavenly mansion is secure.

628 V 1-4
Then fail the earth, let stars decline,
And sun and moonrefuse to shine,
All natures sink and cease to be,
That heavenly mansion stands for me.

462 II 1
Large are the mansions in thy Father's dwelling

Martyrs

641 I 1-4

Flung to the heedless winds
Or on the waters cast,
The martyrs ashes watched
Shall gathered be at last.

641 II 1-4

And from that scattered dust,
Around us and abroad,
Shall spring a plenteous seed
Of witnesses for God.

395 III 1-2

Where prophets' word, and martyrs blood,
And prayers of saints were sown.

Mercy

42 II 1-2

New mercies, each returning day,
Hover round us while we pray;

246 I 2

'Tis mercy speaks today;

310 III 5-6

'Tis mercy all, immense and free,
For, O my God, it found out me!

408 II 5-8

For not with swords loud clashing,
Or roll of stirring drums,
With deeds of love and mercy,
The heavenly kingdom comes.

514 IV 3

Mercy heard, and set him free,

642 II 1-2

Mercy and truth, that long were missed
Now joyfull are met.

Memories

52 I 1-4

Silently the shades of evening
Gather round my lowly door
Silently they bring before me
Faces I shall see no more.

52 III 1-2

Living in the silent hours,
Where our spirits only blend,

Memories

52 IV 1-4

How such holy memories cluster,
Like the stars when storms are past,
Pointing up to that fair heaven
We may hope to gain at last.

Mercy Seat

495 I 1-4

From every stormy wind that blows
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
Tis found beneath the mercy seat.

495 II 1-4

There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of l gladness on our heads;
A place than all besides more sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy seat.

495 III 1-4

There is a scene where spirits blend
Where friend holds with fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far by faith they meet
Around one common mercy seat.

495 V 1-2,4

There, there on eagle wings we soar
And sin and sense molest no more;
And heaven comes down our souls to greet
While glory crowns the mercy seat.

Morning

511 VI 3

The morning breaks the shadows flea;

584 I 3-4

The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.

Mystery

464 II 1-4

Around my path life's mysteries
Their deepening shadows throw;
And as I gaze and ponder,
They dark and darker grow.

Mystery

484 IV 1-4
O sweeter than naught else besides
The tender mystery
That like a vale of shadow hides
The light I may not see!

Nature

80 I 3-4
Nature and grace, with all their powers,
Confess the Infinite unknown.

80 III 1
Still restless nature dies and grows

Need

50 III 1
I need thy presence every passing hour;

506 I 1
I need thee every hour,

506 II 1
I need thee every hour,

506 III 1-2
I need thee every hour,
In joy or pain

506 IV 1
I need thee every hour;

506 V 1-2
Ineed thee every hour,
Most Holy One;

506 Ref. 1-2
I need, thee, O I need thee;
Every hour I need thee;

Negatives

50 IV 1-2
I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no wait, and tears no bitterness.

330 I 3
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,

414 I 3-4
He who God's call can understand,
Will work and murmur not.

Negative

700 II 1-4
Twas not their courage nor their sword
To them salvation gave;
Twas not their number nor their strength
That did their country save;

Neighbor

690 I 1-4
Who is thy neightbor?
He whom thou hast power to aid or bless;
Whose aching heart or burning brow
Thy soothing hand may press.

690 II 1-2
Thy neigh bor ? 'Tis the fainting poor,
Whose eye with want is dim;

690 III 1-2
Thy neighbor? He who drinks the cup
When sorrow drowns the brim;

Ours

20 III 3-4
Resting in him, his peace and joy possessing,
All things are ours, for we have all in him.

22 IV 1
This awful God is ours,

Owe

649 I 8
To my Lord, my all I owe

692 III 1-4
For peaceful homes, and healthful days,
For all the blessing earth displays,
We owe thee thankfulness and praise,
Who givest all.

Pain

487 III 8
And pain and sorrow all depart

556 VI 1-2
From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin we shall be free;

529 I 2,4,8
Jesus is mine

529 II 2,4,8
Jesus is mine

529 III 2,4,8
Jesus is mine

529 IV 2,4,8
Jesus is mine

548 I 2
Jesus is mine.

Pain

637 III 2
Then be banished grief and pain;

Pardoned Ones

439 I 1-4
Lord, how secure and blessed are they
Who feel the joys of pardoned sin!
Shoudl storms of wrath shake earth and sea,
Their minds have heavenand peace within.

439 II 1-4
The day glides swiftly o'er their heads,
Made up of innocence and love;
And soft and silent as the shades,
Their nightly minutes gently move.

439 III 1-4
Quick as their thoughts their joys come on,
But fly not half so swift away
Their souls are ever bright as noon,
And calm as summer evenings be.

Peace

51 III 2
Peace is the pillow for my head

70 III 1-2
This heavenly calm within the breast
Is the dear pledge of glorious rest.

74 II 1-4
Peace is on the world abroad
Tis the holy peace of God,
Symbol of the peace within
When the spirit rests from sin.

218 III 1-4
Loud may the troubled ocean roar
In sacred peace our souls abide;
While everynation, every shore,
Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.

324 I 3
My peace is in thy favor

455 I 1-3
When musing sorrow sweeps the past
And mourns the present pain,
'Tis sweet to think of peace at last,
And feel that death is gain.

Peace

542 VI 1-2
Joy is like restless day; but peace divine
Like quiet night:

553 IV 2-3
The common peace we feel,
A peace to worldly mind unknown,

636 II 3-4
Traveller, blessed ness and light,
Peace and truth, its course portends,

637 III 3-4
Righteousness and joy and peace,
Undisturbed, shall ever reign.

642 II 3-4
Sweet peace and righteousness have kissed,
And hand in hand are set.

Plea

285 II 1
Thy promise is my only plea

357 I 3-4
This all my hope, and all my plea,
For me the Saviour died.

453 I 6-7
Yet is this still my plea,
Jesus hath died.

Praise

171 IV 3-4
Loudest praises, without ceasing.
Meet it is for us to give.

182 III 1-2
The profit will be mine,
But thine shall be the praise;

534 IV 4-6
My days of praise shall n'er be passed,
While life, and thought, and being last,
Or immortality endures.

Praise

715 I 1-4

Eternal source of every joy,
Well may thy praise our lips employ,
While in thy temple we appear,
Whose goodness crowns the circling year.

715 II 1-2

Seasons and months and weeks and days,
Demands successive songs of praise,

Prayer

515 III 1-3

When our earthly comforts fail,
When the foes of life prevail,
Tis the time for earnestprayer;

516 I 1-8

Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer
That calls me from a world of care,
And bids me at my Father's throne,
Make all my wants and wishes known.
In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found release,
And oft escaped the tempter's snare,
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer.

519 II 1-6

For when we kneel and cast our care
Upon our God in humble prayer
With strengthened souls we rise,
Sure that our Father who isnigh,
To hear the ravens when they cry,
Will hear his children's cries.

Progress

347 II 1-4

Each step we take, but gathers strength
For further progress till at length,
With ease the highest steeps we gain
And count the mountains but a plain.

347 III 1-4

Who watch, and pray, and work each hour
Receive new life and added power,
A power fresh victories to win,
Over the world and self and sin.

Progress

419 I 3-5

But heaven is nearer,
And Christ is dearer
Than yesterday, to me;

419 III 2-5

O yes, a weary day;
But heaven shines clearer
An d rest comes nearer,
Ateach step of the way;

480 I 3-4

And every day I live,
I seem, to love thee more and more.

Pure

360 I 1-4

Blest are the pure in heart
For they shall seeour God
The secret of the Lord is theirs
Their soul is Christ's abode.

Queen of Seasons

163 III 1-8

Now the queen of seasons bright
With the day of splendor,
With the royal feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who, with true affection,
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesus' resurrection!

Rays (of twilight)

62 III 1

Slowly the rays of daylight fade

74 I 1-4

Softly fade the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath day;
Gentle as life's setting sun
When the Christian's course is run.

Recognition(of divine presence)

43 I 1-4

Still still with thee when purple morning breaketh,
When the bird waketh, and the shadows flee;
Fairer than morning lovelilier than daylight
Dawns the sweet conscienceness, I am with thee.

Recognition(of divine presence)

43 II 1-4
Alone with thee, amid the mystic shadows,
The solemn hush of nature newly born;
Alone with thee in breathless adoration,
In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.

43 III 1-4
As inthe dawning o'er the waveless ocean,
The image of themorning-star doth rest
So in thisstillness thou beholdest only
Thine image in the waters of my breast.

43 IV 1-4
Still, still to thee! as to each new born morning
A fresh and solemn splendor still is given,
So does this blessed consciousness awaking
Breath each day nearness unto thee and heaven.

43 V 1-4
When sinks the soul, subdued by toil, to slumber
Its closing eyes look up to thee in prayer;
Sweet the repose beneath thy wings o'er shading
But sweeter still, to wake and find thee there.

43 VI 1-4
So shall it be at last, in that bright morning,
When the soul waketh, and life's shadow flee.
O in that hour, fairer than daylight dawning,
Shall rise the glorious thought--I am with thee.

Resignation

438 III 1
Lord, my times are in thy hand

449 I 1
My times are in thy hand;

449 II 1-4
My times are in thy hand,
Whatever they may be;
Pleasing or painful, dark or bright,
As best may seem to thee.

449 III 1
My times are in thy hand;

449 IV 1
My times are in thy hand;

449 V 1
My times are in thy hand

464 IV 3-4
Then to thy waiting servant,
Alike they both shall be.

Resignation

480 IV 1-4
He always wins who sides with God,
To him no chance is lost;
God's will is sweetest tohim when
It triumphs at his cost.

Rest

73 II 2
But there's a nobler rest above;

250 I 3-4
Twere vain the ocean's depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.

250 I 1-2
O where shall rest be found,
Rest for the weary soul?

302 IV 2
Here is my hope my joy my rest.

357 I 1-2
Forever here my rest shall be
Close to thybleeding side.

421 VII 2
The wearied ones shall rest.

548 III 1
Per fect submission all is at rest.

Righteousness

637 III 3-4
Righteousness and joy and peace,
Undisturbed shall ever reign.

642 II 3-4
Sweet peace and righteousness have kissed,
And hand in hand are set.

Round

42 IV 1-4
The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we ought to ask,
Room to deny ourselves; a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

Sabbath

63 I 3-4
This is the day our rising Lord
Hath made and called his own.

63 II 1-4
This is the day which God hath blest,
The brightest of the seven,
Type of that everlasting rest,
The saints enjoy in heaven.

68 III 1-2-8
Today on weary nations
The heavenly manna falls;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,
Where gospel light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living waters flowing
Withsoul-refreshing streams .

69 I 5-6
Day of all the week the best,
Emblem of eternal rest.

70 I 1-2
Another six day's work is done;
Another Sabboth is begun.

70 IV 3-4
How sweet, a Sabbaththus to spend,
In hope of one that ne'er shall end!

71 II 1-2
Sweet is the day of sacred rest;
No mortal cares shall cease my breast;

72 I 1-8
The dawn of God's dear Sabbath
Breaks o'er the earth again,
As some sweet summer morning
After a night of pain;
It comes as cooling showers
To some exhausted land,
As shade of clustered palm trees
Mid weary wastes of sand.

74 I 1-4
Softly fades the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath day:
Gently as life's setting sun
When the Christian's course is run.

Saints(the)

391 IV 1-4

The apostles of my Lord,
To whom it first was given,
They could not speak a greater word,
Nor all the saints in heaven.

404 II 1-4

Though dead, they speak in reason's ear,
And in example, live;
Their faith and hope, and mighty deeds,
Still fresh instruction give.

Satisfaction

484 III 3-4

Enough for me to know thou art,
To love thee and adore.

Seemly

16 III 4

For it is seemly so to do.

Self(about)

170 III 8

He and we shall yet be one

283 III 5

In me is all the bar

285 II 4

And such, O Lord, am I

296 II 5

No sinner worse than I can be

300 I 1,5

I was a wandering sheep
I was a wayward child,

300 III 1,5

No more a wandering sheep,
No more a wayward child,

310 V 1-2

No condemnation now I dread,
Jesus, with all inhim is mine;

lo III 1-3

O enter then his gates with praise
Approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise, laud, and bless his name always.

Self(about)

348 III 2

It shall be no longer mine

349 IV 5-8

And when thy face I see,
My ransomed soul shall be,
Through all eternity,
Something for thee.

351 I 2

I am poor and weak and blind

351 IV 2

Now I feel the blood applied,

353 II 3-4

I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own.

364 III 1-8

It is not as thou wilt give me,
Till, humbled in the dust,
I know no place in all my heart
Wherein to put my trust:
Until I find, O Lord, in thee,
The Lowly and the Meek,
The fullness which thine own redeemed
Go nowhere else to seek.

388 I 1-4

A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.

442 IV 2

And we lose courage then

459 I 5

On thee alone our spirits stay

460 I 3,6

The night is dark and I am far from home;
The distant scenes; one step enough for me.

463 III 1,6-7

Thou O Christ art all I want
I am all unrighteousness;
False and full of sin I am.

Self(About)

470 I 1-2

Lord, it belongs not to my care
Whether I die or live;

481 IV 1-2

O cross that liftest up my head,
I dare not ask to fly from thee.

511 I 5-6

With thee all night I mean to stay
And wrestle till the break of day.

514 I 4

Mine's an urgent, pressing case.

575 V 1, VI 4

Our residue of days or hours,
Thine, wholly thine shall be;
And all our consecrated powers,
A sacrifice to thee.

Till Jesus in the clouds appear
To saints on earth forgiven,
And bring the grand sabbatic year,
The jubilee of heaven.

589 III 3-4

No gate of pearl, no branch of palm I merit,
Nor street of shining gold.

Self(about)

616 I 6

Counting gain but loss

627 I -V

Beyond the smiling and the weeping,
I shall be seen;
Beyond the waking and the sleeping
Beyond the sowing and the reaping
I shall be soon.

Beyond the blooming and the fading
I shall be soon;
Beyond the shining and the shading,
Beyond the hoping and the dreading,
I shall be soon.

Beyond the rising and the setting
I shall be soon
Beyond the calming and the fretting
Beyond remembering and forgetting
I shall be seen

Beyond the parting and the meeting
I shall be soon;
Beyond the farewell and the greeting,
Beyond the pulse's fever beating
I shall be soon.

Beyond the frost-chain and the fever
I shall be soon;
Beyond the rock-waste and the river,
Beyond the ever and the never
I shall be soon.

628 II 3-4

When fromthis earthly prison free
That heavenly mansion mine shall be

660 IV 1-2

Lord, tis not ours to make the sea,
And earth, and sky, a house for thee.

Service

120 II 6-8

But we the shepherds are,
To bear the message which they bring,
To those both near and far:

Service

402 II 1-8

If you cannot cross the ocean,
And the heathen lands explore,
You can find the heathen nearer,
You can helpthem at your door;
If you cannot give your thousands
You can give the widow's mite,
And the least you give for Jesus
Will be precious inhis sight.

465 VII 1-6

In service which thy love appoints
There are no bonds for me;
My secret heart is taught the truth
That makes thy children free
A life of self-renouncing love
Is one of liberty.

470 I 3

To love and serve thee is my share,
And humbler the pomp ofprocession andpraise

666 II 2

Because that we are strong;

687 II 1-2

Thy cause doth claim our souls by name,

688 IV 1-4

To comfort and to bless
To find a bond for woe,
To tend the lone and fatherless
Is angels work below.

688 V 1-4

The captive to release,
To God the lost to bring,
To teach the way of life and peace,
It is a Christ-like thing.

689 III 1-4

Amid the snares misfortune lays
Unseen beneath the steps of all
Blest is the love that seeks to raise,
And stay and strengthen those who fall.

689 IV 1-4

Till, taught by Him who for our sake
Bore every form of life's distress,
With every passing year we make
The sum of human sorrow less.

479 IV-V

Our Friend,our Brother,and our Lord,
What may thy service be?
Nor name, nor form,nor ritual word,
But simply following thee.

Thy litanys,sweet offices
Of love and gratitude;
Thy sacrimental liturgies,
The joy of doing good.

Service

691 II 1-2
He that hath pity on the poor
Lendeth his substance to the Lord;

693 III 1-5
Heavy is the cross they bear,

Nor where, at sultry noon, thy Son
Sat weary by the patriarch's well.

COMMENT

The World Service Program would seem to require that the world program of the Christ (Matt. 28: 19-20) be set forth definitely, forcibly, and enthusiastically, a d that large space be given to it. In the second place, the World Servie Program would seem to demand a magnificent leadership in this definite program. Searching for this in the hymnal one finds that out of 11,335 measures taken in the first section, only 281 measures or .248 have in them a world viewpoint. Four of these are not true S measures (see chart), leaving 277. Of these 141 are modified by either panch or chay, so that only 136 may be considered as true service emphases measured by W. Even in this number are included 20 measures modified by saht. Including these 20 measures we have .012 and excluding them we have .01, a very meagre emphasis in the presence of such an enterprise.

Studying the measures of activity on the part of the Christ as depicted in the second section we find that out of 1028 emphases, 113 are measured by ψ , 71 by ϕ , 341 by χ , and 503 by + ; i.e. only 11% have a definite world viewpoint while .489 are definitely limited and individualistic in character, which is in harmony with our study of the emphases in section 1.

Of the 1027 emphases on the activity of the Christ studied only 32 or .031 were given to the idea of Christ as leader. Of these 22 are measured by + ; 8 by χ ; leaving only 2 measured by ψ . These consisted merely in a declaration of leadership and an assurance of ultimate triumph.
